REVIEW OF COMMISSION'S RULES AND REGULATIONS

Mr. Maloney reviewed the definition of adult entertainment establishments and as it related to retail establishments, rather than adult entertainment novelty shops. This request was prompted by a request from Division of Professional Regulation investigators so that they could better assess these types of establishments on their investigations. Mr. Maloney stated that he had limited success in his research and that most establishments did not even define the term adult entertainment. Mr. Maloney would continue his search since this proved to be a difficult concept to define.

Mr. Nutter stated that to his knowledge Fairways Inn was still closed and construction had not been completed. Mr. Carter stated that the Commission renewed the license for the establishment but the entertainers were not included on the renewal forms because the business was under reconstruction after arson damage.
